

This summer edition of the NCGS Newsletter is being sent out to communicate the final plans for the Wilmington meeting and to pass along some suggested constitutional changes to be considered at the meeting. It looks as if Duncan Randall has organized a really interesting meeting. Send in the enclosed form if you intend to come.

STUDENT PAPER SESSION

Students and faculty sponsors are reminded that the deadline for submission of papers for the student session is thirty days prior to the annual meeting, or September 4, 1974. For guidelines for these papers consult the April, 1974, Newsletter or your department chairman.

Papers should be sent to Gordon Bennett, Department of Geography, UNC-G, Greensboro, N.C.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES

The Steering Committee proposes the following changes in the Constitution, to be voted on by the membership in business session on October 5, 1974:

Article IV, Section 3 -- The following sentence shall be added to Section 3: The Editor shall serve for a term of two years.

Article VI, Section 7 -- The words and the Editor shall be added to the last sentence in Section 7 so that it shall

With the cooperation of the Lower

Cape Fear Historical Society, a tour of historic Wilmington is being arranged for Saturday morning. This will not be a formal field trip but guidance will be available. The Saturday afternoon field trip, weather permitting, will be an excursion to Masonboro Island (bus and boat). An urban-industrial field trip of Wilmington is being organized as back-up.

At this time, no difficulty is anticipated in obtaining gasoline.

Holiday Inn maintains a list of local gas station schedules. They also provide transportation from and to New Hanover County Airport (Piedmont Airlines).

The Battleship, U.S.S. North

Carolina, Fort Fisher, Brunswick Town

and Moores Creek National Military Park

will be open on Sunday, along with other places of interest.

In order to give the planning committee some idea of attendance, please
